

Congratulations to our December Students of the Month

The mission of the Chagrin Falls Middle School Students of the Month is to acknowledge and reward students for exemplary performance. The students depict Tiger Techniques: Think, Integrity, Grit, Effort and Responsibility. Each month, the seventh and eighth grade teams collaborate and choose a male and female "Tiger of the Month" and the students receive personalized tiger water bottles from the PTO

Seventh Graders

Elizabeth Partain

Elizabeth is a diligent student who is committed to excellence in everything she does. She is so dedicated to the MS Speech and Debate team and competed in Public Forum successfully this quarter with excellent feedback from all her rounds. She is a wonderful addition to English class and Speech & Debate. Elizabeth asks great questions and is interested in the details of a problem. She learns quickly from mistakes. During social studies projects, a group couldn't ask for a better member than Elizabeth. What a positive attitude she brings to class each day. Her work is always neat, on time and complete. Elizabeth is always prepared for class. She works well every day and strives to do her best. She is one of the kindest students I have encountered over the years. Elizabeth always presents herself with a smile.

Colby Wells

Colby really is the "whole package". He is an excellent team member during group projects in social studies and he is a kind-hearted student. He is responsible and his ever-present smile is a delight to see each day. In English class, Colby works hard every day. He asks questions to clarify his understanding and to get feedback on his writing. He aims to do his best, works well with everyone, and always has a smile on his face. Colby is an energetic student who always tries his best. He is organized which helps him improve and revise his work, when necessary. He also does a great job explaining his thinking to his classmates.

Eighth Graders

Alyssa Zaffiro

Alyssa is a sweet and well-rounded student who asks great questions and has clever insight. She participates frequently and is a very responsible student. Alyssa is a pleasure to have in class. She is kind, thoughtful, and diligent. Alyssa challenges herself and brings a positive attitude to class every day. Alyssa is a wonderful violinist and member of the 8th grade orchestra. She comes to class with a smile on her face and is always ready for rehearsal. Alyssa is a leader in the orchestra and is consistently helping others in her section. Alyssa is fantastic member of Select Choir. She comes to rehearsals prepared and with a great attitude. She is always organized, positive, and a leader in the choir - not to mention she is a talented singer! Whenever there is an extra project in class or in homeroom, Alyssa volunteers for the committee and ensures that everything for her class and group is done with precision and is presented well. You can see evidence of this through door decorations, bulletin boards, class videos, and Day of the Dead ofrendas.

Aiden Kniskern

Aidan is an inquisitive and responsible student. He is focused, easy going with peers, respectful to staff and contributes to creating a positive learning environment, Aiden is a leader in his classes. Student takes risks in the ELA classroom. He constantly challenges himself, follows directions, and smiles. One stand-out moment was when he went above and beyond to complete the advanced stations for the character analysis writing assignment. He is always participating in social studies class.
