Dear Parent(s)/Guardian(s),

I am pleased to inform you that your identified gifted student in grades 3-9 is eligible to participate in Northwestern University's Midwest Academic Talent Search (NUMATS), sponsored by the Center for Talent Development (CTD).

Your child is eligible based upon:

× gifted identification on a nationally-normed test (by Ohio Department of Education guidelines) and/or local classification as an "advanced" student, enrolled in Honors or Advanced Math and/or ELA courses

NUMATS is a research-validated, above-grade-level testing program that offers the PSAT 8/9, ACT, and SAT to eligible students. All of these tests are internationally recognized measures of academic ability designed for older students. Studies show that there are definite and large ability differences among students who score in the top 10% on grade-level tests. When these students take tests meant for older students, the differences are more apparent, and instruction can be better adapted to meet their individual needs. The included F.A.Q. provides additional information.

Although participation in NUMATS is voluntary, identified gifted students like your child can benefit from:

- Information about their academic ability that grade-level tests do not provide
- Academic planning and resource options based on test scores
- Information about education programs for gifted students
- Experience and practice taking the PSAT 8/9, ACT, and/or SAT, which are used for high school placement and/or college entrance

The NUMATS Family Guide 2019 provides additional information. Online registration is preferred, but paper forms are available by calling the CTD: (847) 491-3782 ext. 2. Do pay close attention to registration deadlines and special student identification guidelines for ACT and SAT testing. Students may wish to (but are not required to) select local testing centers from the list provided within this e-blast. Northwestern University Midwest Academic Talent Search (NUMATS) F.A.Q.'s

What is NUMATS?

NUMATS is a research-validated, above-grade-level testing program that offers the PSAT 8/9, ACT, and SAT to eligible students. These tests are internationally recognized measures of academic ability designed for older students. Studies show that there are definite and large ability differences among students who score in the top 10% on grade-level tests. When these students take tests meant for older students, the differences are more apparent, and instruction can be better adapted to meet their individual needs. The NUMATS Family Guide 2019 contains additional information about the program, test dates, and registration process.

Why should my gifted child participate in NUMATS?

Although participation is voluntary, our gifted students are encouraged to participate. Benefits of NUMATS include:

- Information about their academic ability that grade-level tests do not provide
- Academic planning and resource options based on test scores
- Information about education programs for gifted students
- Experience and practice taking PSAT 8/9, ACT, and/or SAT, which are used for high school placement and/or college entrance

How was my child identified for a district invitation to participate in NUMATS?

All Chagrin Falls Exempted Village School District identified gifted students currently enrolled in grades 3-9 have been invited to participate in NUMATS this year, as well as all students currently enrolled in 1 or more Advanced or Honors Math and/or ELA courses (in grades 4-9). While identified gifted/advanced students in grades 3-5 may participate in NUMATS and access the PSAT 8/9 assessment, we feel as if NUMATS is most valuable for our gifted students in grades 6-9, as they may access the ACT and SAT and choose to not have scores reported to colleges. While our district encourages identified gifted and advanced students to participate in NUMATS, additional students may meet the NUMATS-established criteria to participate. This eligibility criteria is described in the within the NUMATS website. Identified gifted students will continue to be eligible to participate in NUMATS each year, through 9th grade.

How do I register my child for NUMATS?

The easiest way to register is online by visiting: <http://toolbox.ctd.northwestern.edu/> You will need one of the following NUMATS ID Numbers, which identifies your child's current school to complete the registration process:
